I understand that I am donating _____ breeding(s) to the ASAV Jump Start Program. I understand that each breeding will be sold by ASAV for $400, with $200 dollars earmarked for the ASAV general fund and $200 being returned to the stallion owner. All other expenses incurred will be paid by the mare owner. The stallion owner agrees to the following stipulations as a participant of this program:

Stipulations:

- 1) Stallion owners must be an ASAV member in good standing (= current with their membership) and their stallion must be registered with ASAV. Registration forms, transfer forms, membership forms are available at www.shagayregistry.com and all forms and fees are due at the time of the stallions enrollment.
- 2) ASAV make no expressed warranties, (i.e. live foal guarantee) for these stallions offered. The contract for service is between the mare owner and stallion owner. ASAV acts only as intermediate in the Jump Start Promotion to the service of these stallions.
- 3) All fees incurred in breeding mares such as semen shipping, transportation, collection, cultures, veterinarian expenses and other fees will be paid in addition to the stud fee by the mare owner. It is the responsibility of the mare owner to contact that stallion owner for fee schedule and requirements before contracting for the ASAV special rate.
- 4) ASAV accepts no liability for the care, custody or control of the mares enrolled or stallions being offered. The breeding contract is exclusively between the mare and stallion owner. Insurance is the responsibility of the horse owners.
- 5) The ASAV Jump Start 2011 is available to ASAV members. Membership fee schedule can be found on the ASAV web-site. This offering is open to any breed of horse that wishes to breed to a Shagya Arabian stallion. Offspring of any breed of horse may enroll, participate and be registered in the appropriate Shagya studbook: Purebred, Appendix, Sportlo or Anglo Shagya book if breed to a Shagya stallion. (See the ASAV webpage for studbook descriptions, registration forms, membership and Jump Start information: www.shagyaregistry.com)
- 6) The stallion owner reserves the right to decline a mare within reason at the stallion owner's discretion and will return the collected special stud fee. Some reasons may include but not limited to the following reasons, i.e. out of date vaccinations, unclean cultures, or health papers.
- 7) All fees must be paid in advance to ASAV by check or money order and returned along with the completed ASAV agreement forms. Opening date to participate and reserve the special breeding rate is January 7th, 2011 on a first come first served basis. All stud services must be completed within 2012 and are non-refundable and cannot be held over unless stallion owner agrees to honor the special rate. Mare owners are limited to three breeding service trials. Unsettled mares are non-refundable. Forms can be found on the ASAV webpage and must be sent to Elisha Morehead (codydozer@zoomtown.com) at 13702 Walton Verona Rd, Verona, Kentucky 41092 faxed can be faxed also to: 859 485-6906. In case of general questions about the ASAV Jump Start Program please contact Donna Coss at: cossdj@gmail.com

I, _____ understand and accept the above stipulations as part of the donation that I am gifting to the ASAV. I understand that this donation is not tax deductible with the IRS, but may be deducted as an advertising or promotion expense. I agree to above conditions on:
